

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
AT SEATTLE

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

v.

BRANDON CHARLES NELSON,

Defendant.

CASE NO. MJ 24-575

DETENTION ORDER

The Court has conducted a detention hearing under 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f) and concludes there are no conditions which the defendant can meet which would reasonably assure the defendant's appearance as required or the safety of any other person and the community.

FINDINGS OF FACT AND STATEMENT OF REASONS FOR DETENTION

Defendant was arrested on a warrant issued by the District of Oregon. It is alleged that Defendant violated his conditions of supervision. Defendant completed his federal term of imprisonment in July 2024. He was directed to remain in the Eastern District of Washington but left that district without permission. It appears he had contact with the probation office regarding living in Portland, Oregon but failed to provide the office with his proposed address. Rather than returning to Portland, he was arrested in the Western District of Washington. The Court finds no conditions of release would assure his appearance at future court hearings.

It is therefore ORDERED:

1 (1) Defendant shall be detained pending trial and committed to the custody of the
2 Attorney General for confinement in a correctional facility separate, to the extent practicable,
3 from persons awaiting or serving sentences, or being held in custody pending appeal;

4 (2) Defendant shall be afforded reasonable opportunity for private consultation with 5 counsel;

6 (3) On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the 7 Government, the person in charge of the correctional facility in which Defendant is confined
8 shall deliver the defendant to a United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in 9 connection with a court proceeding; and

10 (4) The Clerk shall provide copies of this order to all counsel, the United States
11 Marshal, and to the United States Probation and Pretrial Services Officer.

12 DATED this 13th day of September, 2024.
